The Swan with Two Necks has been run by Steve & Christine Dilworth since 1987. Now the pub is helped run by their family; Head Chef Michael, Rob & Danielle, keeping the pub in the family name & allowing family values to continue.

The pub has won numerous of awards in recent years regionally & nationally in the CAMRA Pub of the Year awards, winning the national awards in 2013 & being a finalist in 2011, 2016 & 2019. In 2021, the pub was chosen to receive one of fifty '50th Golden Awards' by CAMRA. More recently, the team won 'Best Family Run Business' in the Ribble Valley Business Awards 2023 & 2024, as well as being featured in the 'Telegraphs' Top 500 Pubs in the UK 2025 & 2026.

The Swan with Two Necks gets its name from an adaption of The Swan with Two Nicks. In former times the "two nicks" resembled the two special marks on the beak to denote the difference between the Vintner swans on the Thames & those of the king.
